Dear Brother

Being informed by the Committee of the Ohio Conference that $173 was put into your hands to exchange and remit to us we have waited in patient but anxious expectation of its arrival till this time and now fearing that some misfortune may have happened to it we think it proper to write.

Should you not have remitted on the receipt of this letter we entreat you to do it without delay as our demand for money is pressing in the extreme and the want of it may be attended with very unpleasant consequences both to ourselves and the cause.

We have received the Life of Dr. Cooke and Mrs. Fletcher from London and intend publishing as soon as the state of our funds will admit.

We have on hand a fine edition of Flanners Observations by D^r Clarke a most valuable work in 4. vol 8to this work should be in the hands of every methodist preacher

The first No. of the Magazine is in the press and will be in circulation by the first of next month

Yours in love
N York
Dec. 8. 1817.
